June 19, 1865- (Galveston, TX) Emancipation

The people of Texas are informed that all slaves are free in accordance with the Emancipation Proclamation. Now celebrated as Juneteenth.

1867-1869- An Alfred Crawford is listed on Texas Voter Registration list and 1868 Poll Tax Records (both in Montgomery County, TX).

Poll tax was required prior to voter registration as part of Jim Crow laws after the right to vote was extended to all races through the Constitution. Used as a way to restrict voting rights.

1870

This is from ancestry.com, 1870 census. Family history says Zack Crawford was third child born to Alfred and Jennie Crawford with Henry as the oldest, Sarah, Zack, Josh and Johnny.

What if.....

this is our Alfred Crawford married to Virginia or nickname Jennie?

Who's oldest child listed in the household at this time is Sarah?

*On the next following pages of census for 1880 and 1900, look at the names of the children.

Sarah is now old enough to be out of the house.
Henry is the youngest. Children with the "M" names are spelled differently, not uncommon for these census reports. Ages are off and birth years as well, also not uncommon for these census reports.

From the Heritage Archives:
Birdie English Crawford-
Born Feb. 1892 in Arkansas
Moved to Hominy with husband Zack Crawford in 1908. They had 13 children.
Miss Birdie was a midwife and delivered many babies during her life. She died in 1984 in Hominy at the age of 92.

These are her words:
"We came to the Osage from Coffeyville, Kansas to pick cotton. We farmed. I helped hoe cotton, pick cotton, and shock cane. My dad, Joe English, had the first load of cotton once when a Stetson Hat was offered as a prize for the first load of the season.
When we came here, we were not welcomed by some of the whites, but now they are our friends. They have helped me raise my children, and I have helped them raise theirs.
"The colored people did their part in helping to build this community. My dad helped build the first school for colored children between here and Wynona. It was a log cabin and was used also for Sunday school and church services.
I remember when there was no depot here or in Wynona. A box car in each place was used for a waiting room."

Montgomery Co. Census list Alfred Crawford (66 years old) as head of household with wife Jennie Crawford (56 years old) married 40 years. Children listed are Willie (25), Henry (21), Jack (20)-- possibly misspelling of Zack; Jooh (15)-- possibly misspelling of Josh, John, Millie, Bertha, Tink, and John.

*Family history says Zack had an older sister named Sarah who is not listed in this census. Oral history says she never married but had children by a white man. When he died, he left property to her. Her daughter's name is Flossy/Flossie. Sarah never left Texas.

This 1900 census lists a Birdie English, 2 years of age, living with a cousin in Kansas. The age listed does not match with what age she should have been according to family history and her marriage license. However, this page is documented because other children listed are Virgil, Dillard, Millie, and Olover Hornage (name cut off from page).

Family history lists these names as some of her siblings (see family reunion facebook page-slide 2). Also, if you look closely at the 1900 census record on the next page, it has her birth date listed as Feb. 1893. This more closely matches the family history date of Feb. 16, 1892. Whoever recorded the census put an incorrect age and listed her as male. It also says her birthplace was Texas which is in disagreement with family history that says Arkansas.
